Bradfield Group is proud to announce that they will start running the postgraduate certificates from February 2009 in Peterborough.

The Postgraduate Certificates in Generalist HR & Learning and Development are educational qualifications positioned at Masters Level. Successful completion of either programme leads to Licentiate membership of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD) and an internationally recognized accredited qualification in Human Resources or Learning and Development. CIPD qualifications give independent recognition of skills as HR and Training Professionals to delegates that successfully complete the programme. CIPD qualifications mean independent assessment and demonstrate professionalism and impact within the work place. The Postgraduate Certificates can be the next step following completion of one of our Certificate level programmes in either Personnel or Training.

The programme will be delivered in a blended learning mode, through a combination of tutor-led workshops, held in blocks (modules) of two days approximately six to eight weeks apart. The workshops will run from 9:30 am – 5pm at the Ramada Hotel in Peterborough.

In response to market demand, the programmes are being piloted in the UK and are to be marketed in the Gulf to start in January 2010 at the latest.
